Subject: Christmas Fireworks Show

Prosper, Texas (November 25, 2008) -- The Town of Prosper will add a fireworks display to this year's Prosper Country Christmas Festival. This year's event will be held on Saturday, December 13th, from 4 until 8 p.m. At approximately 8:15 p.m. that night, the fireworks will begin.

"This is the first fireworks show ever hosted by the Town of Prosper", said Karen Gill, festival organizer. "We are excited to offer this addition to the festival, and hope to expand upon it in coming years." The fireworks vendor, Atlas Enterprises, has years of experience providing beautiful displays.

In addition to the fireworks, there will be a Gingerbread House Competition, lots of fun activities for the children, opportunities to do some Christmas shopping and enjoy live entertainment – including performances by Kraig Parker. For complete festival details, including information on volunteering for the event, participating in the parade, Gingerbread House applications, and much more, please see the Town's website at <http://www.prospertx.gov/tabid/901/Default.aspx>.

"All activities are free to the public", said Gill. "The only time you'll spend money is if you would like to make a purchase of merchandise or food. And speaking of food! We have some wonderful additions to this year's event, so come hungry!"

As a reminder, event parking will be at Prosper High School, located at 300 Eagle Lane. Free shuttle service is provided from the school to the event. And finally, this is an outdoor event, so please dress accordingly. If it is too windy, the fireworks show will rescheduled to another date.

Mark your calendar! We'll see you at Festival!
