PROSPER POLICE CHIEF RECOGNIZED – Prosper Police Chief Doug Kowalski (right) holds the Gary W. Sykes Award for Professional Achievement presented by T. Neil Moore, Director of the Institute for Law Enforcement Administration. The Institute, an affiliate of the Center for American and International Law, seeks to improve the quality of justice by developing law enforcement leaders and practitioners through professional education and technical support. The award is presented annually to an individual who has been in law enforcement for at least 10 years; has been instrumental in bringing about significant organizational change for the good of the profession; is significantly involved in community service and civic activities; and is a role model to law enforcement officers, support personnel, criminal justice professionals and citizens. Kowalski was nominated for the award by the McKinney Police Department, where he served as Chief prior to joining the Prosper Police Department.

ABOUT THE TOWN OF PROSPER – The Town of Prosper is a fast-growing suburb with small town charm, located 30 miles north of Dallas at the crossroads of U.S. 380, Preston Road and the Dallas North Tollway in Collin and Denton Counties. Prosper sits on 27 square miles and is home to more than 15,000 people. A home-rule municipality, governed by a council-manager form of government, the town has full-time fire and police departments, including its own dispatch service. As the Town grows to its projected build-out population of 70,000 residents, Prosper’s vision is to remain a “Place Where Everyone Matters.”
