Prosper Police Department Announces Arrests Following Multi-Agency Investigation

PROSPER, TX – September 15, 2025 – The Prosper Police Department announced today multiple arrests following a lengthy and complex investigation into prostitution and indecency offenses occurring under the guise of a legitimate massage therapy business. The offenses occurred at Nami Massage Spa, located in the 200 block of South Preston Road in Prosper.

The investigation included a coordinated multi-agency operation during which multiple search and arrest warrants were executed at the business tied to the case. As a result, Miles Edward Richards and Yu Jun Cheng, both of Melissa, Texas, were arrested and booked into the Collin County Detention Center on charges of Aggravated Promotion of Prostitution. The Prosper Police Department can confirm that there were no crimes against minors found during the investigation.

This extensive operation was strengthened by the assistance and collaboration of several partner agencies, including the Prosper Fire Department, Texas Department of Public Safety, Melissa Police Department, Richardson Police Department, Plano Police Department, United States Homeland Security (HSI/HTTF) and the Internal Revenue Service.

“The success of this operation reflects the strength of our partnerships and our shared commitment to protecting the Prosper community,” said Chief Doug Kowalski. “We will continue to pursue those who attempt to exploit or endanger others under the guise of legitimate business operations in the Town of Prosper.”

The investigation remains active and ongoing. Individuals with additional information regarding these suspects or related criminal activity at their businesses are encouraged to contact the Prosper Police Department at 972-569-1000.
