Structure Fire at First Presbyterian Church of Prosper

PROSPER (August 2, 2022) At approximately 1:45 p.m. on August 2, 2022, Prosper Fire Rescue received a call about a structure fire at the First Presbyterian Church of Prosper located at 400 S. Coleman St. on the southwest corner of First Street and Coleman. Upon arrival, Prosper Fire Rescue crews worked swiftly to get the fire under control with the assistance of Frisco, Celina, McKinney, Little Elm and Aubrey Fire Departments. There were no reports of anyone inside or injuries and the fire did not spread to any additional structures. The cause of the 3-alarm fire is still under investigation.

The First Presbyterian Church of Prosper has been in its current location since 1902 and was designated as a historic structure by the Texas Historical Commission in 2012.

ABOUT THE TOWN OF PROSPER – The Town of Prosper is a fast-growing suburb with small-town charm, located 30 miles north of Dallas at the crossroads of U.S. 380, Preston Road and the Dallas North Tollway in Collin and Denton Counties. Prosper sits on 27 square miles and is home to more than 35,430 people. A home-rule municipality, governed by a council-manager form of government, the town has full-time fire and police departments, including its own dispatch service. As the Town grows to its projected build-out population of 70,000 residents, Prosper’s vision is to remain a “Place Where Everyone Matters.” Learn more about Prosper by visiting prospertx.gov.
